NEWSLETTER August 2014

SAILING IN AUGUST

Cruise to Helford

Saturday 2nd August

This looks like being another successful trip to Helford as a good number of people have now registered for it with Julian Davy.

St Mawes One Design Championships

Sat 2nd – Sun 3rd August

This resurgent class will have four races: three on Saturday starting at 1100 and one on Sunday morning, all starting and finishing on the Club line.

Ladies' Race

Wed 6th August

One start at 1830 for keelboats and dinghies. Sailors' suppers and prizegiving in the Clubhouse afterwards

Dinghy team race against Restronguet SC

Saturday 9th August

This is not team racing in the strictest sense, but handicap racing in which all are welcome. Two races, the first at 1400.

Falmouth Week

Sun 10th – Sat 16th

Although the date for discounted entries has passed, it is by no means too late to enter: you can do so for the week on-line up to midnight on Saturday the 9th but most classes can enter for single days as well. see www.falmouthweek.co.uk/ for details.

Junior Race Week

Mon 18th – Fri 22nd - see

<http://www.stmawessailing.co.uk/sailing/juniors/jrw.php> for details. Please enter NOW as late entries cause a considerable amount of last minute administration and the strong possibility that all the T shirts will have gone!

Gul Falmouth Dinghy Week

Mon 18th – Fri 22nd

A brand new event with three races each day on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and special races on Thursday and Friday. The first start each day is at 1400 so there is no clash with Junior Race Week, and the racing will take place in the lower Carrick Roads. There is no longer a late entry fee and it is still possible to enter up until the day before. See www.falmouth-dinghy-week.co.uk/ for further details.

Meanderers' cruises

There are two Saturday Meanderers' Cruises in August – on the 9th and 30th. Anyone who is interested in joining in with these should get in touch with Bob Morse - 01326 279075 or bobmorse600@gmail.com.

Tall Ships' Regatta

The competing boats will be gathering in Falmouth during the few days leading up to the race start on Sunday the 31st of August. The Parade of Sail from Falmouth will start about 1100 and the race itself will then start in Falmouth Bay at about 1600, and finish off the Isle of Wight. The boats will then be free to make their own way to the next official port of Greenwich. Don't forget that 12 members of StMSC will be sailing on the Ocean 62 schooner Merrilyn (which belongs to the Rona Sailing Project) including Commodore Nigel Sharp as skipper.

JULY CHAMPIONSHIPS

Working Boat 'World' Championships

B Class was won for the second year running by Rita with Cousin Jinny second. St Mawes boats did well with Helen Mary 3rd and Evelyn 4th.

Ajax National Championships

David Liddington's three race wins in the seven-race series helped him to overall victory in Athena, with Roger Wood's Amalthea and John Howard's Aeolus tied on points behind him. When the "most firsts" procedure was applied, second place was awarded to Amalthea.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Friday 8th August at 1930
