

Bulletin January 2018

January is a quiet month but we have two very good evening talks:

Thursday 11th at 2000 -

THE SAILING PHILOSOPHERS – Peter Marshall and Elizabeth Ashton-Hill

Peter Marshall is a philosopher, historian, travel writer, poet and sailor. He has written sixteen highly acclaimed books many of which contribute to the history of ideas and philosophy and he has a special interest in anarchy, free speech and liberal thought (which may be why he and Liz spend five months of their year honing their ideas and sailing the Mediterranean!)

His book Celtic Gold is an account of his singlehanded trip around Ireland in 28ft Westerly Centaur. This and many other anecdotes will be the subject of this talk.

Thursday 25th at 2000 -

THE CLIPPER ROUND THE WORLD RACE – Chris Beddoes

Another rollercoaster ride as Club member Chris tells us about his participation in the 2015/16 Clipper Round the World Race.

Food menus will be announced a few days before each talk.
